2012 TEEN SUMMER STUDIO

MOCA's Summer Studio is a FREE three-week intensive program that gives high-school students the opportunity to learn new techniques and skills in a variety of media while working with local teaching artists. Participating students will create pieces suitable for portfolios, as well as learn strategies and processes to approaching visual problems and conceptual thinking.

Students will travel to local destinations to create work inspired by their surroundings. Participants will be encouraged to explore and experiment with new materials and ways of communicating ideas visually. Student work will be exhibited in MOCA's Pavilion Gallery on August 31st.

Summer Studio is an exceptional opportunity requiring a high-level of commitment and willingness to learn. Summer Studio inspires students and prepares them for real-world experiences as aspiring artists. Enriching and fun, the three-week program is a great opportunity for motivated students from all area schools.
