HOW DID YOU HEAR ABOUT MOCA SUMMER ARTS CAMP? _____

MOCA SUMMER ARTS CAMP is a well-rounded studio-based art program. Students are introduced to contemporary art through discipline based hands-on learning. They participate in daily discussions about their individual art projects and present their work to family and friends in a nurturing environment. Projects are inspired by MOCA exhibitions. The museum is their classroom.

DYNAMIC DESIGN CAMP is a design oriented immersion program where students learn to appreciate the applied arts of Architecture, Graphic Design, Design for Living and more. They learn about materials and processes fundamental to daily life during field trips, in the museum during discussions and through making 2d and 3d projects in the studio.

MOCA Summer Camp 2019 Class Schedule:

Session 1: June 10- June 21

MOCA Arts Camp: Figurative Leap!

Jump into summer and learn to draw in action! Create a visual flip book using rotoscope inspired techniques, and build your foundations of figure drawing.

Dynamic Design Camp: Public Spaces

Pull inspiration from the on-site public installation as part of POTOPRENS, as well as historic land artists such as Christo and Jeanne-Claude, Anna Mendietta, and Andy Goldsworthy. Students will create and document their own land-works and site-specific installations on the MOCA Plaza Pond.

Session 2: June 24- July 5

MOCA Arts Camp: Super Sculptors

Inspired by the monumental works in POTOPRENS, students will learn the introduction to sculpture and thinking in “the round.”

Dynamic Design Camp: Interstitial Spaces

Students will explore site specific interior installation, and create cardboard interventions within MOCA. They will cover the topics of interior design, craftsmanship, and accessibility.

Session 3: July 8- July 19

MOCA Arts Camp: Fabric-cation

Inspired by POTOPRENS artist, Myrlande Constant, students will learn hand-sewing and beading techniques to create large scale family flags. This two week session is a perfect introduction to fiber arts including crotchet, looming, and weaving.

Dynamic Design Camp: Perplexing Perspective

Students will delve into the dizzying world of perspective, pulling inspiration from artists such as MC Escher and Patrick Hughes. This two week session will run the gamut from one-point perspectives, to eye boggling, three dimensional works.

Session 4: July 22- August 2

MOCA Arts Camp: Panoramic Portraits

Introduction to new and innovative portrait styles, students will create surreal and unconventional landscapes, learning about stretch and skew portraiture, and symbolic portraits.

Dynamic Design Camp: Mod Modular

Inspired by the Bauhaus movement, students will learn furniture design and construction, mold making and prefab work.

Session 5: August 5- August 16

MOCA Arts Camp: Lino Lineup

Introduction to linoleum stamping, students will create their own lino designs, and “tiling” work.

Dynamic Design Camp: MOCAzine

Learn to create and design your own “zine.” This intensive graphic design oriented session, helps students learn the basics of layout, text, and portfolio skills.

Camp Showcase: August 15th-17th

Art Work Created by the MOCA Summer Arts Camp Students-2018

Please note that submitting the scholarship application does not guarantee a scholarship will be awarded to the MOCA Summer Camp. Scholarships are limited, and a MOCA Education staff will contact you at the email and/or phone number you've listed with a status of your application. MOCA Summer Camp scholarships come with a strict attendance policy. Students with excessive absences will be immediately dropped from the scholarship program, and a scholarship will be awarded to a student on the waiting list.*
